1. The auction sale will commence at 2 P. M., and if it is not concluded on the same day, will be continued on the next following day at the same hour.

2. Defaulters on account of previous leases will not be permitted to bid.

3. Intending bidders must be in possession of certificate from the Amildar of the taluk, in which they reside vouching for their solvency; no person will be allowed to bid in the absence of such a certificate.

4. No person will be allowed to bid unless he has deposited with the officer holding the sale a sum of Rs. 50 which must be deposited in the form of currency notes. The deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned immediately after the sale. Silver will not be accepted as earnest money.

5. The exclusive right of collecting and removing the produce above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, who at his discretion may accept or reject the highest or any other bid without assigning any reason therefor.

6. The successful bidder shall at the close of the sale credit into the District Treasury or any Taluk Treasury the entire sale amount, including the deposit already made, together with local cess at one anna per rupee. In default, the deposit will be forfeited and the right resold. Such resale will be at the risk of the defaulting purchaser who will be liable to make good any loss that may result to Government by it, but will not participate in any profit accruing therefrom.

N. B.—If the deficit be not paid it will be recovered as a revenue demand.

7. If the sale is not confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, the amount paid will be refunded to the party.

8. The accepted bidder shall execute an agreement on a duly stamped paper, within fifteen days of the intimation of the confirmation of the sale binding himself to observe the usual conditions. In default, the acceptance of his bid will be revoked, the money already paid forfeited and the right resold.

N. B.—No resale will be held in case the original Lessees pay the amounts due on or before the resale date.

B. V. RAMAIA,
District Forest Officer.
